MILITARY NOTICES.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, IT HAS BEEN MADE TO APPEAR to me that the terms of the Proclamation issued by me on the 30th ultimo, for the benefit of those members of our Army who are absent from their posts without proper furlough, have been disregarded by many of the men who might have availed themselves of its manifest provisions in time for them to do so.

Now, therefore I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this second Proclamation, extending the time fixed in the former to the 20th day of March next. All such persons as above referred to, who shall have reported to their several camps by that day, will suffer no punishment for their past delinquencies. To those who shall not have so responded, nothing can be promised except the severest penalties of the military law.

In witness whereof, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, have signed these presents and caused the great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 12th day of February, A. D., 1863, and in the 87th year of our Independence.

GLORIOUS NEWS—RECRUITS WANTED!

THE TIME HAS AGAIN COME WHEN MEN MAY volunteer to serve their country, in the Company of their choice, and thereby avoid conscription. I will try to make room in my Company of Fort Artillery, stationed at Fort Fisher, for 25 or 30 more good men. Heavy Artillery is evidently the best branch of service, so now is your time—come right on to Fort Fisher.
